

HarborFest Set for Saturday, August 26

Full Day of Waterfront Activities for All Ages at Harbor Point

Harbor Commissioner, Ray Redniss, named Commodore of HarborFest 17

Evening Fireworks Spectacular!

Stamford, CT – SoundWaters HarborFest 17, a day of fun and exciting activities on Stamford Harbor, will take place on Saturday, August 26 from 10am – 6pm at the Harbor Point Waterfront located at 2200 Atlantic Street. Plenty of free parking is available in the Harbor Point garages and parking lots. HarborFest will culminate in a spectacular fireworks display, sponsored by the City of Stamford and the Stamford Partnership.

HarborFest 16 attracted over 5,000 people and HarborFest 17 will have even more to see and do for all ages.

What Can You Do at HarborFest 17?

Here are some highlights:

HarborFest Commodore's Reception – Friday, August 25

Starting a new tradition of honoring great friends and advocates for Stamford Harbor and Long Island Sound, SoundWaters has named Stamford native and local businessman, Raymond L. Redniss, as its first HarborFest Commodore. Ray will be honored at the official HarborFest Launch Reception on Friday, August 25 at Stamford Yacht Club. The public is invited and may purchase tickets at SoundWatersHarborFest.org.

A longtime member of Stamford Yacht Club and former board member of Young Mariners Foundation, Ray has a deep history in local sailing, water safety and environmental advocacy. He is currently Vice Chairman of the Stamford Harbor Management Commission and Principal Surveyor of Redniss & Mead, a Stamford based engineering, surveying and environmental consulting firm.

Race for the Mayor's Trophy in the Cardboard Kayak Races, sponsored by Aquarion Water

The wildly popular Cardboard Kayak Race will have separate adult and youth races this year. Teams will build their boats from supplied cardboard and tape and then race them on the Harbor. The youth race (under 18) will take place at 11:00am, followed by the adult race at 3:00pm. The race is open to all comers, but teams must register in advance and space is limited. There is a $200 team registration fee to cover the cost of materials. Teams may register at SoundWatersHarborFest.org.

Take a Harbor History Boat Tour with the Stamford Historical Society

Enjoy a leisurely boat tour of Stamford Harbor and learn all about the colorful history of our great harbor since 1642. Led by the Stamford Historical Society and Stamford Yacht Club, tours will depart HarborFest at 10:15 and 11:15am, 12:15 and 1:15pm. Seating is limited. Tickets for the Harbor Tour cost only $5 per person and may be purchased on-site at the HarborFest Information Tent.

Try Scuba Diving in the Go Dive Now Pool

Have you ever wanted to try SCUBA diving, but didn't know how or where? Well you can in the Go Dive Now pool at HarborFest. The Go Dive Now pool is a 20x30 foot, 15,000-gallon mobile pool. It comes complete with dressing rooms, all the newest diving equipment, including wetsuits and fins for all ages. So bring your bathing suit when you come to HarborFest. Minimum age for diving is 10 and divers 11 and under must be accompanied by an adult also trying scuba. The Go Dive Now pool is free to the public and will be open on Friday, August 25 from noon – 5pm and during HarborFest on Saturday from 10am - 6pm.

Play a Round along the Water on the HarborFest Seaside Golf Links, presented by Redniss & Mead

HarborFest is bringing golf to Stamford Harbor! Constructed just for HarborFest, the nine-hole layout will wind its way through the Harbor Point waterfront bringing lighthouses, wishing wells, windmills and loop de loops into play. The course is designed for putters of all ages and skill levels to enjoy a challenging and fun game. A round on Stamford's newest course costs just $2 per person.

Build a Boat, sponsored by Bright Horizons Childrens Centers

Not old enough to build a cardboard kayak? Even young children can have fun building a small boat at HarborFest. Children will get instructions from SoundWaters Young Mariners to build and decorate a sturdy, small wooden sailboat that they can take home as their HarborFest souvenir. Boat building is free and will continue while supplies last so arrive early.

Kids Games and Activities, sponsored by the Stamford Recreation Department

With everything to do at HarborFest, if your kids still have energy to spare, the Stamford Recreation Department will be at HarborFest from 11am – 1pm running all sorts of fun, active games for children.

Or just Paint a Picture of Boats, sponsored by Pinot's Palette

If you're more of the artistic type, you will enjoy the Pinot Palette's waterfront studio where you'll get inspiration from the many harbor scenes. For $10, Pinot's Palette will provide you with a 10"x10" canvas and all the painting supplies and tips you'll need to create your marine masterpiece. This is an ideal activity for all ages.

Tour the Boats of Stamford Harbor

Tour and learn about all the important boats that work on Stamford Harbor.

- US Coast Guard – Learn from the officers and watch demonstrations of water rescues and Coast Guard technology
- Stamford Fire Boat – This boat has all the cool rescue equipment and fire hoses needed to keep people safe on the water
- Stamford Marine Police – The police are on the water every day. Come meet them and learn how they protect us on the Harbor and Long Island Sound.
- Stella Mar Oyster Boat – What's it like to be an oysterman? Tour a working oyster boat and learn how the oysters we eat are grown and harvested right in Stamford waters.
- Schooner SoundWaters – Come tour the "floating classroom of Long Island Sound," a beautiful three masted schooner that sails daily out of Stamford Harbor

Learn how to Fly Cast, sponsored by Orvis

No one knows fly fishing better than Orvis and their experts will be at HarborFest to teach you the fluid and graceful art of fly casting. Look for the Orvis tent along the waterfront.

Sail Long Island Sound on the Schooner SoundWaters

SoundWaters will sail with the public from its HarborFest dock at 12:00pm, 3:00pm and 5:30pm. Come aboard the iconic Schooner SoundWaters for a beautiful afternoon or romantic sunset sail on Long Island Sound. The sails will sell out quickly so advance reservations are recommended at SoundWaters.org/sails.

Explore Stamford Harbor on a Kayak or Paddleboard

Want to get on the water in a human-powered boat? SoundWaters has plenty of kayaks and paddleboards for rent on the Harbor Point waterfront. All the equipment sold out last year so it's a good idea to reserve your boat in advance at SoundWaters.org/rentals.

Tour the HarborFest Village

Dozens of the area's unique and innovative merchants will be on the HarborFest boardwalk all day with product displays, samples and demonstrations for visitors of all ages. Whatever your need or interest, you'll find it in the HarborFest Village.

Enjoy Stamford's Largest Oyster Bar, presented by Stella Mar Oysters and Prime

A summer Saturday afternoon, oysters on the boardwalk at Harbor Point and free; What could be better? Stella Mar Oyster Company will provide the oysters fresh from Long Island Sound and Prime will shuck them for you. All you have to do is enjoy them. The HarborFest Oyster Bar will open at 4:00pm, following the Cardboard Kayak Races.

Get Your Pre-Fireworks fill at a Harbor Point restaurant

All the Harbor Point restaurants and the Ponus Yacht Club are offering HarborFest food and drink specials so whether you're staying late from HarborFest or coming down early for fireworks, you'll find all the food, drink and entertainment options you'll want before you settle in for the fireworks.

Enjoy the Fireworks, sponsored by the City of Stamford and the Stamford Partnership

HarborFest finishes with a bang when fireworks launch over Stamford Harbor at 8:20pm. Bring a blanket and a picnic or enjoy one of the many Harbor Point restaurants or the Ponus Yacht Club. Great waterfront viewing is also available at Boccuzzi Park and Kosciuszko Park.

All proceeds from HarborFest will help fund SoundWaters year-round Long Island Sound education programs. Funding and support to make HarborFest possible is provided by Harbor Point, Stamford Health, Aquarion Water Company, O&G Industries, Frontier Communications, 95.9 The FOX, Moffly Media, City Carting, Stella Mar Oyster Company, Stamford Yacht Club, the Stamford Historical Society, Orvis, Stamford Motorsports and the City of Stamford Mayor's office, Police and Fire Departments.
