

SOUNDWATERS TALL SHIPS BALL

SEA of LOVE

FRIDAY APRIL 28TH
STAMFORD YACHT CLUB

Sea of Love

When: Friday, April 28, 2023

Time: 6:30pm - 11:00pm

Where: Stamford Yacht Club

What: They gathered by the thousands in Haight-Ashbury for the Summer of Love. They descended on Max Yasgur's farm by the hundreds of thousands for Woodstock. They were the flower children of the 60's, united by a mission of peace, love, togetherness and an amazingly colorful sense of style. They had fun, they made a statement and wow did they ever make an impact. Now it's our turn to make an impact! Let your hair grow, grab your bell bottoms and join hundreds of other SoundWaters hippies for a swim in the Sea of Love at the Tall Ships Ball. When you step inside the doors of Stamford Yacht Club, you'll start moving to a whole new groove. The scene will be psychedelic, the drinks will be mind-altering and the band will be tuned and ready to rock.

Join SoundWaters for the party of OUR generation!

Why: Because we have a mission and we're determined to make an impact. Your support will allow SoundWaters to confront climate change by teaching climate science to over 25,000 students, build students' life skills through a curriculum of sailing and academic support and enable young people to launch careers in the maritime trades. Most importantly, your support will ensure we can offer these opportunities to young people regardless of their ability to pay. Now that's impact!
